Notes on John & Theodosia:

Marriage bond, Hardin Co, dated 30 Jul 1811, for John Dodge and Theodosia Dodge signed by John Dodge and Richard Winchester. Document written by minister dated 24 Jul 1812, states John Dodge and Theodosia Dodge were married 1 Aug 1811. Why was Theodosia's last name Dodge before her wedding? Mistake on document, or was she family to Lydia Dodge and taken in by Richard and Lydia?

Names of some of John and Theodosia's children are Thomas, John, Lydia, Jordan, Mary, Elizabeth, Louisa, and Nancy.

John and Theodosia sold all their land in KY in 1832.

1870 IL census-were living with son Jordan in Indian Point Township, Knox Co., IL

John died 18 May 1873, in Abingdon, Knox Co., IL

Notes on Henry Dodge:

Obituary: was born Elizabethtown, Hardin Co., KY, 23 Dec 1813. Left KY and settled at Beardstown, IL, and there in 1833 married Lourena Jolly. He was the oldest of 4 brothers, and is survived by the remaining three. Henry died 18 Oct 1894, in Hamilton, IL.

(The obituary could have mistakes or at least be missing some data, like other siblings perhaps unknown to whoever wrote the obituary.)

Names of Henry's children are Lucinda, John, Silas, Cermalia, Thomas, Louisa, Mary, and Hester.

John and Theodosia sold all their land in 1832 and appear to have left KY. Henry showed up in Illinois by 1833. Did they all go to Illinois together? Need to locate John and Theodosia for the years 1832-1970.
